

Addison Group places specialized UX Designer to build critical AI product ecosystem

A global healthcare and life sciences consulting and technology firm needed a UX professional to support their AI-driven platforms.

Challenge

The client was investing in its AI and GenAI product ecosystem, which enables users to query complex healthcare and life sciences data.

To support this initiative, the client needed a high-impact UX design resource who could translate complex data-heavy AI workflows into intuitive user experiences and accelerate design system consistency across AI-driven applications. The UX expert they needed would need to work cross-functionally with product, engineering, and data teams in a fast-paced, innovation-driven environment.

The main challenge for the client was finding someone who could operate at the intersection of AI, data, and enterprise usability.

Solutions

To find this critical UX Designer, the client partnered with Addison Group due to our vast network of AI-savvy UX and product talent with experience in data-heavy environments. The client was familiar with our strong reputation for placing high-performing consultants who deliver value and was impressed that our consultative approach aligned technical capability with business outcomes.

Addison Group's solution: a leader with experience in AI-driven application design and prototyping, design systems and scalable UI frameworks, and healthcare and data-intensive platforms.

Results

- Accelerated product development timelines through rapid prototyping and streamlined design-to-development workflows
- Improved usability of complex AI-driven tools, enabling more efficient data exploration and decision-making
- Strengthened design system scalability across the AI platform ecosystem
- Provided a resource who required minimal ramp-up and delivered immediate results, reducing risk on a critical initiative

"The client was impressed that our consultative approach aligned technical capability with business outcomes."

The Addison difference

We know that great teams start with great people.

That means we focus on quality, not quotas. It means that we're laser-focused on seeing candidates beyond their resumes to understand their goals and make sure they align with your mission. And it means working with you to get detailed insights into your teams so we can find people who fit, not just who's available.

No one gets talent like Addison Group.®
